

Guidelines for authors - SALTISE 2025

This guide is intended to support authors during the submission process. It consists of three parts:

- Abstract criteria
- Setting up an EasyChair account
- Proposal submission in EasyChair

If you do need help, please contact our team at: info@saltise.ca

1) Abstract criteria

a) Proposals must include

- Proposal title
- Keywords - at least 3
- Abstract – 100 words (this will appear in the conference program)
- Description – min. 250, max. 600 words
- Submissions and presentations may be in either English or French.

b) Topics can include

- Best practices and advice on using new pedagogies (i.e., using active learning approaches, flipped-classroom, blended learning, e-learning, etc.)
- Implementation of technological innovations (i.e., online technologies, using tablets, interactive whiteboards, etc.)
- Research findings from educational psychology, science education, educational technology, learning sciences, adapted education, etc.
- Special topics that impact instruction and learning (i.e., universal design learning (UDL), student cognitive development, data mining, data analytics, etc.)

c) Evaluation criteria

- Submissions will be evaluated according to:
- Potential to contribute to the knowledge base of the SALTISE community
- Theoretical orientation / conceptual framework
- Research design / method
- Findings / conclusion
- Clarity and writing

2) Set up an EasyChair account

First, you will need to set up an account (username and password) as an author. Go to <https://easychair.org/account/signup>.

Follow the provided instructions to verify and then click on “Continue”. Complete the form (as shown in Figure 1).
